

Atamanand Teachers Training College

Aatmanand Sikshan Sansthan takes pride in welcoming you all. From the Gurukuls to the schools, the education is for the all around development of an individual along with this; education has always worked as a promoter of the development of a nation. The aim of teacher training is to equip teacher community with new techniques so that students can cope and keep pace with global development more efficiently. Trained faculty with new methods and creativity will be more efficient in producing more academically sound students. With this, we are inexorably moving towards a new era of education ca....Know More
